What are the advantages: With FlipFlip, you'll have complete control over your slideshow. With custom themes you can change the background and colors, and you'll have the choice to add all your tracks in the first playlist or sort them by album, artist, or genre. When you start the slideshow, you'll have the option to choose one of the themes, along with an option to load your favorite photos and music right from your iPhone without any hassles. With the "Anywhere access control" feature, you can check the slideshow before you leave the house, knowing it will be ready for use when you arrive. There are very few bugs to report. In my experience, the only glitch I can remember was the music video that I
