A: try the following wget -r If the previous does not help, there is also the option of using a main url: wget -r and finally if you use the following, it will grab for you all the new debian archives wget -c For the record, public health officials are not saying that vaccines themselves are the cause of autism. A cause that we know is Autism! Public health officials would just as soon hold the vaccine manufacturers responsible. Newsday reports: Plenty of children have had chickenpox, but the typical reaction is a high fever and pain for a day or two. This is a very different scenario for thousands of children, whose fevers and pain last longer than a day and have no immediate ending. The vaccine actually drives the disease and is the cause of these reactions, and that, said Dr. Martin Boulanger, is a cause for concern. Boulanger, president of the New Jersey Society of Emergency Physicians, called the CDC's recommendation for a two-dose course "wildly irresponsible," adding that "the risk of getting serious complications or death from the vaccine is hundreds of times greater than the risk of having a mild reaction to the chickenpox." ... "The vaccine has made chickenpox dangerous," said Dr. Stefan D. Martin, chief of the division of infectious diseases at the New Jersey pediatric emergency department at Cooper University Hospital. "We've gotten more serious cases of chickenpox here in the past 12 years, and they are much more likely to be severe." The CDC's Jernigan said "there is no proof that vaccines cause autism." "They do not know whether vaccines cause autism, and they are not recommending that people who are d0c515b9f4
